

10 better ways to respond to the question
"HOW ARE YOU?"

Part One | Answer + Basic Question

Normal Answer + Basic Question

"I'm pretty good (thanks).
What's new with you?"

Happy Answer + Basic Question

"I'm doing great (thanks).
How about you?"

Busy Answer + Basic Question

"I've been a bit busy, but okay. How have things been with you?"

Stressed Answer + Basic Question

"Things have been a bit rough lately, but they're getting better. How have you been?"

Satisfied Answer + Basic Question

"Never been better. What about you?"

Match the answers and
the following questions:

Part One | Answer + Connection Question

Happy Answer + Connection Question

"I'm doing great (thanks). I heard that you got a new job. How's that going?"

Busy Answer + Connection Question

"I've been a bit busy, but okay. I remember that you said you were also working on some things. Any update?"

Stressed Answer + Connection Question

"Things have been a bit rough lately, but they're getting better. (Now) I know your mom had some good news recently. How is she?"

Normal Answer + Connection Question

"I'm pretty good (thanks). I saw your facebook post about your business. What's the update?"

Satisfied Answer + Connection Question

"Never been better. You are also looking quite happy. Any special reason?"

Match answers and the following questions:

